Connecting Employers with Top Candidates

The S&C Talent Network is a professional placement services office that provides potential employers access to over 3,500 S&C alumni around the world, as well as lawyers currently at the firm looking to move in-house. For over a century, S&C has been famous for the selectivity of its recruiting, its generalist training and the strong sense of ownership and responsibility instilled in its lawyers. The Talent Network is part of our career-long relationship with the lawyers we recruit and train. It offers employers – whether or not clients of the firm – a unique opportunity to help find the best candidate for any internal legal position.
