Sullivan & Cromwell is Proud to Celebrate 20 Years in China
Sullivan & Cromwell established its Beijing office in 1999. The Firm was among the first top-tier Wall Street firms to have an office in mainland China, adding to the Firm's already-expansive Asia practice. S&C's Beijing and Hong Kong lawyers work as one team to provide U.S. and Hong Kong law advice to clients in Greater China, the Asia-Pacific region, and around the world.

Today, the Beijing office provides a critical in-country platform to serve the Firm's Chinese and multinational clients on a wide range of cross-border mergers and acquisitions and private equity transactions, as well as on securities offerings, debt securities offerings and other complex financing matters.

S&C has been involved in numerous unique transactions in Greater China, including the first-ever merger of two Securities and Exchange Commission-registered Chinese companies and the first-ever private sector merger between two Chinese companies.
