Sullivan & Cromwell's Hong Kong office opened in 1992. In 2011, S&C completed the regulatory measures to commence the practice of Hong Kong law. S&C's Hong Kong and Beijing lawyers work as one team to provide U.S. and Hong Kong law advice to clients in Greater China and the Asia-Pacific region.

Work in the Hong Kong office is focused on mergers and acquisitions, capital markets, corporate finance, private equity and financing.

S&C has been involved in numerous precedent-setting transactions in Greater China, including the first-ever merger of two Securities and Exchange Commission-registered Chinese companies and the first-ever private sector merger between two Chinese companies.
