Founded in 1927, the Firm's Paris office is the oldest of Sullivan & Cromwell's European offices. S&C's Paris-based team has complementary French and U.S. law practices, advises on some of the largest and most innovative transactions in France and throughout Europe and is consistently ranked as one of the leading firms in France.

The Paris office advises corporate, government and investment banking clients on a broad range of corporate and finance matters involving France, including cross-border and domestic mergers and acquisitions, equity and debt capital markets, restructurings, private equity and other investments, and related regulatory matters. The office also includes a significant French tax practice.
