

SULLIVAN & CROMWELL LLP

General Practice/Corporate Law

Sullivan & Cromwell's General Practice/Corporate Law Group provides integrated advice and service across a spectrum of practice areas to clients around the world. The Group's diverse client base includes U.S. and non-U.S. industrial and commercial companies, financial service institutions, investment funds, governments and individuals. S&C's client base reflects the Firm's global reach, breadth of skills and experience and commitment to client service.

The Group's lawyers are frequently engaged in complex commercial matters that have significant tax, regulatory and litigation issues. The Group distinguishes S&C with its experience coordinating seamlessly across the Firm to provide multidisciplinary service tailored to the client's needs.

S&C's General Practice/Corporate Law Group core practice areas are:

- capital markets, leveraged finance and lending;
- commercial real estate;
- commodities, futures and derivatives;
- executive compensation;
- financial services;
- intellectual property and technology transactions;
- mergers and acquisitions;
- project development and finance; and
- restructuring.

PRACTICES & CAPABILITIES

General Practice/Corporate Law

Capital Markets

Credit & Leveraged Finance

Commercial Real Estate

Commodities, Futures & Derivatives

Executive Compensation

Financial Services

Intellectual Property & Technology Transactions

Mergers & Acquisitions

Project Development & Finance

Restructuring