The primary focus of Rodgin Cohen’s practice is acquisition, regulatory, enforcement and securities law matters for U.S. and non-U.S. banking and other financial institutions and their trade associations, and corporate governance matters for a wide variety of organizations.

Mr. Cohen and S&C are at the vanguard of critical issues and developments affecting financial institutions, and S&C has long been the firm of choice for leading global financial institutions.

Recent press stories attest to the preeminent stature of Mr. Cohen in the financial institutions sector:

“As the Senior Chair of Sullivan & Cromwell, [Cohen] is setting a tone and pace for the entire firm … Clients will say ‘We know he’s the Senior Chair, and we know everyone’s seeking him out, yet when I talk to Mr. Cohen, he will act as though I’m his only client.’” (BTI Consulting Group’s All Stars, 2016)

“Rodgin Cohen is regarded rather highly among his peers, with one noting that ‘you don’t have a category for God, but you’d have to put him there and then everyone else would follow from that.’ Widely perceived as the premier financial services attorney on the scene, he’s ‘done just about every deal’ and ‘nothing compares to the amount of trust that the industry places in him.’” (Chambers USA, 2016)

“Rodgin Cohen ‘remains preeminent,’ according to peers, who describe him as ‘the dean of the bank M&A world.’ In addition to advising clients in the financial institutions arena, Cohen recently advised Ace on its $28.3 billion acquisition of Chubb Corporation. (Chambers USA, 2016)

“The ‘indefatigable’ Rodgin Cohen has ‘unmatched bank regulatory experience’ and continues to be involved in many of the most significant mandates in the industry.” (Legal 500 US, 2016)

“Rodgin Cohen is arguably the preeminent financial services regulatory attorney in the industry, and is widely hailed for his ‘unparalleled experience and unparalleled judgment.’ Cohen has an astonishing track record in the representation of financial institutions in compliance, enforcement and M&A matters. He is described by clients as ‘the man that continually impresses’ and ‘the premier lawyer in the field of finance.’” (Chambers USA, 2015)
“Rodgin Cohen is a preeminent figure in the financial services industry and continues to be recognized by peers and clients alike as ‘a legend in the field.’ His excellence spans the full range of regulatory issues experienced by banking clients, including compliance, enforcement and M&A matters. Cohen is ‘a true gentleman and a practitioner of the highest caliber. The man is just incredible,’ says one interviewee, while another suggests that ‘he walks on water.’” (Chambers USA, 2014)

“Rodgin Cohen has a stellar reputation in the New York corporate and M&A market, with clients identifying him as ‘simply the most commercially aware, proactive and connected of the outside counsel,’ and highlighting his ability to ‘put himself in his clients’ shoes.’” (Chambers USA, 2014)

“Rodgin Cohen retains his legendary status as trusted counsel and industry ‘standard-bearer,’ and ‘continues to be spectacular’ at the forefront of the ongoing reform of banking industry regulations. His ability to ‘cut through issues that may hang up others’ and find creative solutions cements his position as arguably the preeminent attorney in the field.” (Chambers USA, 2013)

“Rodgin Cohen is repeatedly referred to as ‘a force of nature,’ and as ‘arguably the best banking lawyer in America.’ He is a legendary transactional lawyer, and is also extremely highly regarded for his enforcement and regulatory expertise. He has played a pivotal role in many of the highest-profile matters in the industry, including leading the team that acted as counsel in all ten of the largest FDIC purchases last year.” (Chambers Global, 2012)

“The iconic Rodgin Cohen is widely considered to stand head and shoulders above other lawyers in the financial services arena, and has achieved near-legendary status for his M&A, enforcement and compliance work: ‘He has done more deals than anyone, ever. He has a thoughtful, even-handed, no-nonsense approach and the courage to say what he thinks without screaming or pounding the table. He has a long history of results because people trust him.’” (Chambers USA, 2012)

“‘Simply the best’, Rodgin Cohen is ‘very approachable and grounded’ and is recognized as ‘the bank regulatory authority’. At the forefront of some of the most important and cutting-edge mandates at the heart of the economic crisis, as well as his well-known expertise for handling banking M&A mandates, he is also frequently the first name on the list of bank bosses regarding Dodd-Frank-related compliance issues.” (The Legal 500, 2012)

“Sullivan & Cromwell is the practice of choice for critical and often unprecedented issues in the financial institutions sector. . . . Paramount to the success of the practice is the venerated Rodgin Cohen. He is ‘the guru of financial services regulation – no one can touch him in terms of his reputation, experience and clout.’” (Chambers Global, 2010)

“Under the leadership of Senior Chair H. Rodgin Cohen, Sullivan & Cromwell has become synonymous with the cutting-edge regulatory work being done as a result of the financial crisis. AIG, Barclays, Bear Stearns, Fannie Mae, Goldman Sachs – the firm’s high-profile client list reads like a who’s who of the financial sector. In the words of one rival partner, ‘You can stand Sullivan & Cromwell in a corner all by themselves.’” (IFLR1000, 2010)

“Rodgin Cohen has played a pivotal role in the recovery of the financial markets, not only for clients but on a wider legislative level as well. ‘He has an incredible understanding of what regulators desire and how boards of directors need to act to optimize situations,’ notes one client. In addition to his phenomenal reputation on the regulatory compliance side, he is equally praised for his enforcement and transactional practice.” (Chambers USA, 2010)
“Mr. Cohen’s influence over Wall Street is both legendary and pervasive, reaching back to the 1980s, when he helped to consolidate the industry, and then to the 1990s, to shape the regulatory scheme that permitted last year’s unprecedented outlay of federal dollars.” (The New York Times, November 15, 2009)

“With virtually all of Wall Street as his client, [Mr. Cohen] has solidified his role as one of the most influential private-sector players in the financial crisis. Over the past five weeks alone, Mr. Cohen and his team have advised Fannie Mae, Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc., Wachovia, Barclays PLC, American International Group Inc., J.P. Morgan Chase & Co. and Goldman Sachs Group Inc. in a blitz of mergers, rescues and cash infusions.” (The Wall Street Journal, October 9, 2008)

“For Mr. Cohen, virtually every day in September was a workday, including the weekends. Long regarded as one of the top counselors to major financial firms, Mr. Cohen has, in the past 30 days alone, advised Fannie Mae; AIG; Lehman Brothers; and JPMorgan Chase & Company in its government-brokered purchase of Washington Mutual.” (The New York Times, October 7, 2008)

“During the chaos of the post-credit crunch financial world, Rodgin Cohen has popped up everywhere. Over the past two weeks of historic, market-reshaping events, he has been ubiquitous.” (The Lawyer, September 29, 2008)

For 40 years, Mr. Cohen has worked on refinancings, capital raising, restructurings and acquisitions both for companies experiencing financial distress and/or regulatory difficulties and for companies providing financing or as acquirors. During the 2008 Financial Crisis, Mr. Cohen and Sullivan & Cromwell represented, among others, Bear Stearns, Lehman, Fannie Mae, AIG, Wachovia, National City, JPMorgan (in its acquisition of WAMU), Barclays (following Lehman’s bankruptcy), MUFG (in its investment in Morgan Stanley) and Banco Popular (in its acquisition of Western and Doral). Similar representations prior to the Financial Crisis included the bank consortium in its interim financing of Franklin National, Continental Illinois, the State of Ohio during the Ohio thrift crisis, First City, First Republic, and, in the period immediately prior to the Financial Crisis, financings by or on behalf of CIC, Merrill Lynch, Citicorp, and Wachovia. Following the Financial Crisis, similar assignments involved CIT and Ally Financial.

Following the Financial Crisis, similar assignments involved CIT and Ally Financial.

Mr. Cohen focuses on a wide variety of regulatory and enforcement matters involving the financial services industry. Representative clients include JPMorgan Chase, Goldman Sachs, Wells Fargo, Bank of New York/Mellon, USBank, GECC, MetLife, Ally, American Express, Citi, ACE, SunTrust, First Horizon, Cullen/Frost, Zions, UNUM, CIT, State Street, Regions, BMO, RBC, TD, Bank of Nova Scotia, HSBC, Barclays, ING, BNPP, Deutsche Bank, Mitsubishi UFJ and Standard Chartered. Mr. Cohen works with all the bank regulatory agencies, as well as multiple other governmental agencies, on behalf of numerous U.S. and non-U.S. financial institutions and trade associations, including The Clearing House. Key recent matters include the Volcker Rule, numerous other provisions of the Dodd-Frank Act and international capital and liquidity standards, resolution and resolution planning.

In the acquisitions area, Mr. Cohen has been engaged in most of the major bank acquisitions in the United States, representing clients in transactions of enormous strategic significance. As an integral member of S&C’s industry-leading bank M&A practice, he has acted on many of the largest transactions in the U.S. since 2010, including ING-Capital One, Royal Bank of Canada-City National, KeyCorp-First Niagara, BMO-Marshall Ilsley, First Horizon-IberiaBank, Hudson City-M&T, Huntington-FirstMerit, CIT-OneWest, EverBank-TI, First Horizon-Capital Bank, and most recently, SunTrust-BB&T. Mr. Cohen’s expertise is rooted in experience, having advised on numerous notable deals historically, including Wells
Fargo-Wachovia, PNC-National City, TD-Commerce, Bank of New York-Mellon Financial, Regions-AmSouth, Wachovia-SouthTrust, Chase-Bank One, First Union-Wachovia, U.S. Bancorp-Firstar, Wells Fargo-Norwest, Wells Fargo-First Interstate, Chemical-Chase, First Union-First Fidelity, Key-Society, NationsBank-C&S, Bank of New York-Irving. He has also served as lead counsel in a number of major acquisitions in the insurance industry, including ACE-Chubb, Anthem-WellPoint and Manulife-Hancock.

In addition, Mr. Cohen has advised a number of major foreign banks in connection with the establishment of offices in the U.S., including China Merchants Bank Co., Ltd., the first Chinese bank to receive the Federal Reserve’s approval to establish a branch in the United States since the adoption of the Foreign Bank Supervision Enhancement Act of 1991. Mr. Cohen also advised the Bank of East Asia in its sale of an 80 percent interest in its U.S. bank to CIBC. The approval was the first of its kind for a Chinese bank and paves the way for other leading Chinese banks to acquire control of depository institutions in the United States.

In addition to many of the finance services companies listed above, Mr. Cohen provides corporate governance advice to Anthem, Boeing, Textron and Travelers. He has advised various corporations in dealing with activists, including, most recently, Bank of New York/Mellon-Trian and Ally-Lion Capital. He also provides cybersecurity advice to a large number of financial and non-financial institutions, both regular clients and as special assignments.

In the securities area, Mr. Cohen worked on the first public offering in the United States by a non-U.S. bank (Barclays) and on a number of other offerings in the United States by non-U.S. banks. He has also worked on public offerings by BancOne, Bank of New York, Chase, Chemical, Citicorp, Continental Illinois, First Bank System, First Fidelity, First Interstate, First Union, KeyCorp, MBNA, Mellon, Morgan Guaranty, Norwest, Republic New York, Security Pacific, Shawmut and Wachovia. He also worked on major capital-raising activities by a number of major financial institutions, preceding and following the Financial Crisis.
