

SULLIVAN & CROMWELL LLP

- PERC
- Tax Equity
- ESG-related standards and guidelines applicable to renewable energy businesses and financings

View our global highlights

“We at S&C regularly help our clients navigate the policy requirements arising from the Equator & Principles and other social and environmental guidelines in a way that achieves successful multi-source financing, but also accommodates sponsors’ commercial objectives and the practical realities faced by projects.”

— Inosi Nyatta, co-head of global Project Development & Finance practice

- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Power & Utilities
- Private Equity
- Project Development & Finance
- Restructuring
- Tax
- Africa
- Asia
- Australia/New Zealand
- Canada
- Europe
- Latin America
- Middle East
- United States

Actively Involved in Making the World Greener

Related Insights

- Hydrogen—Investment Structuring Considerations
- Hydrogen—An Overview of Current and Proposed Government Policies
- Webinar: Winds of Change—U.S. and European Perspectives on the Offshore Wind Market
- Renewables Update—Key Considerations for Renewables Transactions: Renewables M&A Series – Part 3
- Renewables and Hydrogen Update—U.S. Market and Regulatory Developments – Part 2
- Renewables Update—Current Market Overview and European Developments – Part 1
- Hydrogen—Recent Developments in Hydrogen Projects: Hydrogen Series – Part 2
- Hydrogen—Fuel of the Future or Just Hot Air?: Hydrogen Series – Part 1

Recent News

- S&C Advises China's Electric Vehicle Maker XPeng in \$1.8 Billion Offering Through Dual Listing
- S&C Represents Underwriters for Mexico's Landmark €750 Million Sustainable Development Goals Bond Offering
- S&C Advises France's EDF on Largest Green Convertible Bond